Every Exhibitor, Contractor, Supplier and Agent must comply with Health and Safety Legislation. They must acknowledge the Health and Safety Policy Statement of Reed Exhibitions and of the Venue for this Show and they must read and comply with the information as outlined in the Health and Safety Section of the Exhibitor Manual. Every Exhibitor accepts that it is their legal and moral responsibility to ensure that their own and other's health and Safety are not put at risk by their actions (or in-actions) throughout the period of the show (build up, breakdown and the open periods). This refers to all Exhibitor Employees and Contractors employed by the Exhibitor to plan and construct their booth. This form should be completed and returned by all Exhibitors to the Address (or email) above on receipt. It is compulsory for every Exhibitor to return this Form.

RESPONSIBILITIES: As the Exhibiting Company, we understand that we are responsible for the activities and Health and Safety of our Employees and the Contractors working on our side. We will make our Exhibition Staff and Contractors aware of the potential risks present on site and will copy them with all Health and Safety Documentation relevant to the Show. I also confirm that we will make available at the show a copy of our company Health and Safety Policy. If we have a space only booth, we will ensure that our Contractor submits our stand plan and method statement for that construction of our stand within the deadline imposed by the Organiser, and that they undertake a specific risk assessment for this event.
